EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

zironyx is an early-stage IT startup operating as a solo-founder venture in Kolkata with an annual revenue base of ₹11L–15L. While CRM systems are implemented, the business suffers from lack of structured sales processes, leading to inconsistent revenue. The current growth trajectory is hindered by a low conversion rate of leads acquired via Meta platforms.

KEY FINDINGS & GROWTH BOTTLENECKS

CRITICAL BUSINESS FINDINGS

- 1

High Founder Dependency: The business is entirely reliant on Rabi Rajput, creating a systemic risk and limiting scalability.
- 2

Sales Process Void: Despite lead generation via Facebook and Instagram, the absence of a structured sales script or pipeline results in significant lead leakage in the conversion funnel.
- 3

Market Differentiation Gap: The business struggles to articulate a Unique Selling Proposition (USP), making it a commodity in the competitive Indian IT software landscape.
- 4

Operational Fragmentation: Heavy reliance on WhatsApp and spreadsheets for core operations indicates a lack of enterprise-grade workflow automation despite having a CRM.

STRATEGIC RECOMMENDATIONS & ROADMAP

IMMEDIATE ACTIONS (THIS WEEK)

- ! Develop a standardized Sales Discovery Script to move conversations from generic inquiries to qualified opportunities.
- ! Define a clear Unique Selling Proposition (USP) to differentiate zironyx from other low-cost IT agencies in the Indian market.

30-DAY ROADMAP

- ! Implement a Lead Scoring mechanism within the existing CRM to prioritize high-intent prospects over social media noise.
- ! Transition operational tracking from spreadsheets to a centralized project management tool (e.g., Trello or Asana) to reduce cognitive load on the founder.

90-DAY ROADMAP

- ! Hire a part-time Sales Development Representative (SDR) or a freelance closer to decouple lead qualification from the CEO's daily schedule.
- ! Launch a case-study based content strategy on LinkedIn to build B2B brand authority beyond B2C social platforms.

12-MONTH SCALING PLAN

- ! Scale revenue to the ₹10L target by diversifying lead sources beyond Meta to include direct prospecting.
- ! Formalize a delivery team structure to transition from a 'Solo Founder' model to a 'Founder-led Organization'.
- ! Audit and optimize the LTV (Lifetime Value) of clients to ensure sustainable recurring revenue streams.

STRATEGIC CONCLUSION

CONSULTING PERSPECTIVE

zironyx possesses the foundational tools (CRM) but lacks the strategic framework (Sales Process) to scale. Transitioning from a founder-centric operation to a process-centric business revenue target.
